Beginner Hockey & Mini Mite Program

This program is an hour long class that meets once per week, geared for the young hockey player ages 4 through 10. Players will be grouped each class by ability. Each player will learn proper skating techniques and puck handling skills. Skaters will learn how to maneuver and be agile on the ice, head positioning, hand positioning on the stick, maneuvering the stick blade to keep the puck on the stick & will develop eye-hand coordination. While each player is having fun, they will develop his/her skills, understand and learn the game of hockey in a cross-ice setting.
